

Programme of the PRE-PANCARDI field trip:
Metamorphic terrains of the Sopron and Kőszeg-Rechnitz Mountains

Wednesday, 19 September 2001

8:00 Departure from Hotel Szieszta, Sopron by bus

In the morning: Sopron Mts

Stop 1 Brennbergbánya (village with an abandoned Miocene brown coal mine)

1/a Kovács-árok outcrop: andalusite-sillimanite-biotite schists

1/b Kőbérc-órom quarry: diaphtoritic disthene-chloritoid schists

Stop 2 Vöröshíd quarry

garnet-bearing chlorite-muscovite schists

Stop 3 Nándormagaslat, Ady Endre street

3/a exposure of leucophyllite (in allochthonous –downslided—poition)

3/b exposure of gneiss at the Geophysical Observatory

Stop 4 Harkai-kúp quarry gneiss quarry; contact with leucophyllite; downfaulting zone – transition to the Kisalföld Basin (Little Hungarian Plain)

At noon: Snack underway in the bus

In the afternoon: Hungarian part of the Kőszeg-Rechnitz Mts

Short guided sightseeing in the old centre of Kőszeg town

Stop 5 Szabó-hegy, road cut

calc-phyllite and oxidized products of weathering

Stop 6 Cák quarry

conglomerate quarry with dolomitic phyllite

Stop 7 Felsőcsatár quarry

greenschist quarry near the abandoned talc mine

Wine tasting in a wine cellar in Felsőcsatár

Travel back to Sopron; arrival time is about 19:30

Dinner in Hotel Szieszta, Sopron